

Ideas, Approaches, and Strategies for DEI in the Learning, Design, and Technology Curriculum

DR. CURT BONK, PROFESSOR OF INSTRUCTIONAL
SYSTEMS TECHNOLOGY AT INDIANA UNIVERSITY
BLOOMINGTON, COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

Addressing issues of learner diversity, equity, and inclusion are front and center in higher education and across every educational sector today. One of the disciplines that is attracting a highly diverse audience today is the field of learning, design, and technology (LDT) as learners today come from nearly every discipline. In this session, Dr. Curt Bonk will discuss ways he has successfully fostered a learning community in diverse LDT classes rich in interaction, engagement, and inclusion of all voices.
