

“Online Teaching and Learning” Open Virtual Lecture Series

September – November, 2020
AP-FECM Executive Office
UBC Asia Forest Research Center

Since March, as a result of Covid-19 pandemic, universities in the Asia Pacific region have been working to transition their face-to-face teaching to online learning. With the tremendous support from APFNet, the AP-FECM Executive Office and UBC Faculty of Forestry are pleased to host an Open Virtual Lecture Series on “Online Teaching and Learning” to support this transition.

This lecture series is open For Free to all the audiences.

Please join the Zoom Link for all lectures:
