FOCUS QUESTIONS

- ◆ “Open is Open as it Gets”! What are the key challenges facing the adoption of OEP more broadly and across the sector?
- ◆ Adoption of OEP requires a radical shift in mindsets about Open Educational Practices. What strategies would facilitate such shifts? How can you know that you have successfully shifted mindsets or not?
- ◆ What are the roles, responsibilities and functions of Higher Educational Institutions, in this regard?
- ◆ How can the design of learning experiences help educators adopt and integrate Open Educational Practices as part of their repertoire?
- ◆ What are the implications of integrating technological tools to enhance such pedagogical practices in online learning?
- ◆ What is the potential of design-based research (DBR) in the adoption of OEP initiatives?

All are welcome!
